Due to the fact that we are regulated by the Council for Licensed Conveyancers (CLC) our professional rules make it an obligation on us to bring certain important issues to your attention and this is the aim of these Terms of Business. You should take time to read and understand these as they contain valuable information such as for example, how fees are calculated and billed, how files are managed etc. Please note that these also contain a limitation of our liability. When you sign the client care letter, form of authority or other documents in order to instruct Goodwills Legal Services Ltd you do so agree to these terms of business.

1. Hours of Business

Our hours of business are Monday to Friday 9am to 5.30pm. If you need to contact us in an emergency please try us on info@goodwills.net and we shall endeavour to help.

2. Our Responsibilities

Our responsibilities may / will include reviewing your matter regularly and keeping you updated at the appropriate stage. Our work does not include tax, or any other ancillary advice, unless instructed by you, and for which there will be an additional fee. Should you require detailed tax planning or trusts advice we would be happy to advise you, or refer you to a tax adviser that may be able to assist.

3. Your Responsibilities

As the client(s) your responsibilities may / will include providing us with clear, timely and accurate instructions, and providing all documentation required to complete the transaction in a timely manner.

4. Basis of Charging

Please refer to the engagement letter for details of fees quoted, or our estimate of fees, or the hourly rates of the fee earner(s) concerned.

Otherwise, our charges will be calculated mainly by reference to the time actually spent by the fee earners and other staff in respect of any work which they do on your behalf. This will include:

- Advising you in meetings and on the
- Negotiating with others on your behalf in meetings, by letter and by
- Considering, drafting and completing documents, deeds etc.
- Preparing for and attending court or tribunal hearings, including travelling and waiting
- Instructing third parties on your
- Legal and factual
- Preparation of any detailed costs

Hourly rates are reviewed periodically to reflect increases in overhead costs and inflation. We will notify you of any variation to the hourly rate.

All work will be charged in units of 1/10th of an hour (i.e. 6 minute units). For example, we charge for the time spent on making and taking calls in 6 minute units. Please note that we may uplift the rates if we have to work outside the normal working hours of the business, for complex issues, the speed at which actions need to be taken and the importance and value of the work. All time spent on a file (including telephone calls and travelling) is charged. We can agree at your request a limit on our fees which will not be exceeded without your authority but in those cases we cannot guarantee the work will have reached any particular stage when we reach this limit. If we cannot agree a further fee arrangement we will be entitled to terminate our instructions.

Where fixed fee estimates are provided, this is based on the information available to us now. We reserve the right to revise the charge if we are required to do work which is additional to that which can be anticipated at this stage. You will be notified if this situation arises.

In property transactions, in the Administration of Estates, cases involving particular complexity or requiring specialist expertise, an additional charge may be made to that calculated on the basis of time spent. This may reflect a percentage of the price of the property, the value of the Estate or other financial benefit. This value element reflects the importance of the transaction and the consequent responsibility falling on the Company. Where a value element is added, we will be happy to explain the calculation to you.

You are entitled to request an estimate of our charges at any stage of your case. We shall update you with a costs estimate every six months or whenever any estimate we have provided is likely to be exceeded, whichever is the sooner.

If we are acting for you under the terms of a Conditional/Contingency Fee Agreement, please refer to that agreement for all essential information in relation to legal costs.

All fees (including fixed fees) will be varied if there are changes in the work or unforeseen or exceptional circumstances arise or the work becomes more time consuming than originally expected. We will discuss this with you when this arises and if you do not wish us to act then we will send you a bill for the works and disbursements to that date.

5. Disbursements

Licensed Conveyancers have to pay out various expenses on behalf of clients including court fees, expert's fees, Land Registry fees, search fees, stamp duty and so on. We have no obligation to make such payments unless you have provided us with the funds for that purpose. We refer to such expenses as 'disbursements'. On the rare occasion that we exercise our discretion and agree to pay such expenses, please note that we shall charge a nominal additional administrative fee.

We reserve the right to carry out a bankruptcy search for any person residing in England and Wales to whom funds will be transferred to, which will be carried out prior to the transfer, at a cost of £2 per person payable by you.

For Probate matters and prior to distribution of the estate, where the person is not residing in England and Wales we shall carry out an overseas bankruptcy search, the cost of which shall be borne either from the estate or from the entitlement due to the beneficiary subject to the bankruptcy search.

6. Value Added Tax

VAT will also be payable by you at the current rate of 20% (or the prevailing rate which may vary from time to time) upon all this Company's charges and upon some of the disbursements (as specified in the client care letter) that are incurred on your behalf.

Our VAT registration number is 181 9700 93.

7. Payment Arrangements

We shall deliver bills to you at regular intervals for the work carried out during the conduct of the case. This assists our cash flow and enables you to budget for costs. Accounts should be settled within 28 days. Interest will be charged on a daily basis at a rate of 4% above Barclays Bank base rate at the time of the delivery of the bill where payment is not made within 28 days of the delivery of the bill.

Payment may be made to us by cash, cheque or card, except for our Will Writing service, which is payable by cash or cheque.

In property transaction cases, if sufficient funds are available on completion and we have sent you a bill, we will deduct our charges and expenses from the funds.

In the Administration of Estate cases, as soon as sufficient funds are available and we have sent you a bill, we will deduct our charges and expenses from the funds.

If we accept instructions from a Limited Company, we may require the directors and/or major shareholders to sign a form of personal guarantee in respect of the charges and expenses of this Company. If this is refused then we will refrain from acting and require immediate payment of our charges up to that point and expenses.

If any account is overdue for payment we shall be entitled to refrain from continuing work for you. We shall also be entitled to retain any documents and papers belonging to you, together with our file of papers, until such time as all sums outstanding are paid.

8. Payment of your Legal Fees by others

If another person is ordered to pay your legal fees, you will not necessarily recover from that person the full amount of costs incurred on your behalf or that person may not be capable of paying what they have been ordered to pay. The fees payable by another party depends on a number of factors applied by the court in determining the level of costs recoverable. They are usually in the range of 60-75% of your total bill. If the other party is in receipt of public funding (legal aid), you may not be able to recover your own legal fees in any event.

9. Your Liability to pay other parties Legal Fees

You must always bear in mind that if the court so directs, you may have to pay the other parties legal fees as well as your own.

10. Your Liability to pay tax, interest or penalties

The liability for all taxes, interest or penalties payable to HMRC or other taxing authority always remain your personal liability. Where we have agreed to this, we shall endeavour to complete correctly and submit promptly any appropriate returns to HMRC or other taxing authority, but in the event of any error, omission or late submission you will be liable to pay all such taxes, interest or penalties. In accordance with HMRC guidelines you are responsible for ensuring that the values submitted on any return are correct.

11. Interest

Our Interest Policy: In accordance with the Council of Licensed Conveyancers handbook, Accounts Code & Guidance, it is the Company's policy to account to its clients for a sum in lieu of interest on a fair and reasonable basis. In particular:

- Client monies will normally be held in general client bank accounts, in which amounts for different matters and clients are pooled
- A sum in lieu of interest will be payable on amounts held in general client bank accounts
- The period for which interest will be paid will normally run from the date on which funds are received by us until the date of issue of any cheque from our Client
- Client monies will normally be held in an instant access bank account to facilitate transactions, however, clients have the right to make alternative arrangements for the holding of their funds during the course of a
- Clients may also request their funds are held in a separate designated client deposit account in which case interest earned on such an account will be paid to the client in full, however, where the client makes alternative arrangements for the holding of their funds or requests funds are held in a separate designated client deposit account the Company reserves the right to charge at our usual fee earner rates for any work carried out or third party costs incurred in implementing the clients requests.
- The rate of interest paid fluctuates according to the rate of interest that the Company can secure from time to time from its principal

Lenders: If you are obtaining borrowing from a lender in a property transaction, we will ask the lender to arrange that the loan cheque is received by us a minimum of 4 working days prior to the completion date. If the money can be telegraphed, we will request that we receive it one working day before the completion. This will enable us to ensure that the necessary funds are available in time for completion. Please be aware that the lender may charge you interest from the date of issue of their loan cheque or the telegraphing of the payment.

12. Tax Advice

Any work that we do for you may involve tax implications. Tax advice is outside of the scope of work we do for you. We are not regulated to advise you on the tax implications of a transaction that you instruct us to carry out, or the likelihood of them arising. If you have any concerns in this respect, please raise them with us immediately. Should you require tax planning we would be happy to refer you to a tax adviser that may be able to assist or, alternatively, you are free to seek tax advice independently.

13. Investment Advice and the FCA

If during this transaction you need advice on investments, we may have to refer you to someone who is authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority, as we are not. However, as we are regulated by the Council for Licensed Conveyancers, we may be able to provide certain limited investment services where these are closely linked to the legal work we are doing for you.

Where we use third party organisations to provide ancillary services, such organisations will charge their standard fees for their routine services, which may vary from time to time. We use Charles Stanley Stockbrokers, a national company with a local office, to provide us with probate valuations of shareholdings, and shall let you know their fees if such services are required.

14. Insurance Mediation

This Company is not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority. However, we are included on the register maintained by the Financial Conduct Authority so that we can carry on insurance mediation activity, which is broadly the advising on, selling and administration of insurance contracts. This is part of our business (including arrangements for complaints or redress if something goes wrong) is regulated by the Council for Licensed Conveyancers. The register can be accessed via the Financial Conduct Authority website at <http://www.fca.org.uk/register/>.

The Council for Licensed Conveyancers is a designated professional body for the purposes of the Financial and Markets Act 2000. The Council for Licensed Conveyancers is the independent regulatory body and the Legal Ombudsman is the independent complaints handling body of the Council for Licensed Conveyancers.

15. Code of Conduct

We comply with the Council for Licensed Conveyancers handbook, which is a clear set of professional principles. Full details of the handbook can be found on the Council for Licenses Conveyancers website.

16. Confidentiality & Disclosure Requirements

All information regarding your business and affairs will be kept confidential at all times, unless you instruct us to disclose information.

In a conveyancing transaction where you are buying a property with the aid of a mortgage, we normally receive instructions from your lender to act on their behalf. Where this is the case we are required to pass them information that you give us that might be relevant to their decision whether to finance the purchase. If you tell us things that you do not want your lender to know and they are relevant to the lender we may have to stop acting for the lender and possibly also for you. If you do not wish us to disclose this information and wish the lender to be separately represented please advise us in writing at the outset of the transaction.

Your continuing instructions will amount to acceptance of these terms and conditions of business and you then hereby authorise us to disclose to the other parties in the transaction and if applicable, to all other parties in the chain of transactions and their agents and advisers, all information which we have in relation to your involvement in the transaction including any related sale or mortgage and other financial arrangements and wishes as to dates for exchange and completion. You may withdraw this authority at any time but if you do so you should appreciate that we will inform the other party or parties and their agents or advisers that this authority has been withdrawn.

In some instances, we may need to outsource certain tasks, including but not limited to typing, photocopying, counsel, expert reports, cost reporting etc. We shall always obtain a confidentiality agreement unless the outsourced company is authorised and regulated by recognised body. If you do not wish us to outsource any tasks then please inform us in writing.

17. Intellectual Property Rights

We retain copyright and all other intellectual property rights in all documents and other works we develop or generate for you (including but not limited to our business know-how and all other materials). We now grant you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sub licensable licence to use such documents but only for the purpose for which they have been produced. If you wish to use the documents for any other specific purpose then you must obtain our express written consent. If you fail to pay our charges in full for any service provided, we reserve the right, on giving you notice, to revoke that licence and only re-grant it to you once full payment has been made.

18. Data Protection Act

We process your personal information and sensitive personal information as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998 in accordance with the applicable data protection law. By submitting your information to us you consent to your information being processed and used by us as follows:

- To supply goods and services and requested by you including such transfer of information to employees, agents and third parties as required for this
- For our internal administration
- To market our goods and services to you. We reserve the right to:
- Transfer our business assets (which include information) on sale or merger of the whole or any part of the
- Transfer our information as required to obtain legal advice, comply with legal requirements, protect our rights and property and the safety of our employees, clients, suppliers and

We may also process or use the data collected for, amongst other things, the legitimate needs of our business and to comply with the legal and regulatory issues.

Further any use of the e mail will carry risks and confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. Any information sent via e mail will be at your risk.

Please note that you have certain rights under the data protection legislation. Should you have any queries or require any further information in this regard, please do not hesitate to contact our Practice Manager.

19. The Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 ("the Act")

The proceeds of crime are any money, property or asset which has arisen as a result of crime e.g. monies (no matter how low in value) that are the result of tax evasion or benefit fraud whether the money has been saved or spent.

If we become aware or suspect the existence of proceeds of crime in your case (whether from you or any other person), in order to enable us, or any other lawyer, to continue with your case without an offence being committed by us, we must in certain circumstances report the irregularity to the National Crime Agency (NCA) without telling you that we have done so. NCA will then give or withhold permission for us to continue with the case. NCA involvement will cause delays to your case. Even if NCA gives permission for the case to continue, it can pass the information received to any relevant body such as the Inland Revenue and an investigation and/or criminal proceedings may take place at any time in the future.

The obligations that we have under the Act can in certain circumstances override the duty of licensed conveyancer/client confidentiality.

Any time spent addressing issues arising from the Act will be charged to you in the same manner as any other work undertaken in relation to your case.

20. Money Laundering Regulations

This Company operates a comprehensive anti Money Laundering Policy as required by the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 and the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002. As a consequence of these regulations, we are legally required to ask for proof of your identification and this is in the form of one original photo ID (passport or photo-card driving licence) and 2 original and recent (i.e. less than 3 month's old) proof of address documents (for example, a bank statement, council tax or utility bill). We are entitled to refuse to act for you if you fail to supply us with appropriate proof of identity for yourself or for any principal whom you may represent. We may if required carry out electronic identity checks and the cost of the said search will be noted as a disbursement and paid by you. Where we undertake an on-line ID check at the commencement of your matter, there is a charge of £8.00 plus VAT per client, which will be in addition to the usual ID checks. Due to the regulations we will not be able to accept any cash payments of more than £500.00. You must not in any circumstances transfer any cash over this limit to our account without prior authority of a Director of the Company. If you do we reserve the right to charge you for the time we need to spend to investigate the source of funds, in order to cover our administrative expenses. We will also not be able to send monies to any third parties.

Where work is referred to us by an introducer, they have responsibility for seeing proof of your identification and providing evidence of this to us in writing. If insufficient evidence is provided then we will need to see the identification documents noted above and/or carry out an on-line ID checked for a charge of £8.00 plus VAT for each client.

Also, we are obliged to report any suspicion of money laundering to the National Crime Agency without informing you no matter how small a sum is involved. If we fail to do so, we could be prosecuted. The Directors of Goodwills Legal Services Ltd will not be liable for any loss you suffer resulting from any disclosure under these provisions (this being an exception to the general rule that your affairs will remain confidential).

In Conveyancing matters in accordance with the Money Laundering Regulations and the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002, we as a Company, are required by law to satisfy ourselves as to the source of any funds used in connection with the purchase. We will therefore require evidence of your deposit money and any balance money you will be providing and how it has been accumulated and let us have any documentary evidence you may have in respect thereof. Please note that we will not be able to proceed if satisfactory evidence is not given as to the source of funds.

21. Distance Selling

If we have not met with you in person, The Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 apply to this matter. This means you have the right to cancel your instructions to us within fourteen days without giving any reason. The cancellation period will expire fourteen days after the date of our initial communication with you. To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform us of your decision to cancel by a clear statement (e.g. a letter sent by post, fax or email) using the contact details on our engagement letter. To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired. If you requested to begin work on your matter during the cancellation period, we reserve the right to ask you to pay us an amount which is in proportion to what has been performed until you have communicated to us your cancellation, in comparison with the full coverage of the retainer.

23. Ending This Agreement

You may terminate your instructions to us any time. If at any stage you do not wish us to continue doing work and/or incurring charges and expenses on your behalf, you must tell us this clearly in writing.

We may decide to stop acting for you but only with good reason, for example:

- If you do not provide clear or proper instructions;
- If you have not provided satisfactory
- If we cannot continue to act without being in breach of rules of professional conduct;
- If there has been an irretrievable breakdown in trust and confidence; or
- If you do not pay an interim bill or comply with a request for payment on

We will however be able to keep all your papers and documents while there is still outstanding money owed to us even though instructions are terminated.

24. Disclaimers

We shall not advise (generally) on environmental liabilities and we shall assume (unless you confirm otherwise) that you are making your own arrangements for any appropriate environmental survey or investigations. Although we may obtain an environmental search (and in some cases this is a requirement by the Lender) in relation to the land, we will not advise you about any issues relating to the possible contamination of any land which may be relevant to your purchase. We shall not carry out any physical inspection of the property nor advise you on the valuation of the property nor the suitability of your mortgage nor any other financial arrangements. We will not advise you on the planning implications of your proposed purchase, unless you expressly instruct us to do so in writing. We shall, however, report to you on any relevant information provided by the results of the "local search". We are not qualified to advise on the results of any search made and would only be able to report to you the actual results of such a search. If you require such advice then you are free to seek this independently. If we are acting for you in a purchase and we are also acting for your proposed lender, we have a duty to fully disclose to your lender all relevant facts about the purchase and the mortgage. This includes but is not limited to any irregularities, discrepancies, cash back payments or discount schemes that a seller is giving to you

25. Conflict of Interests

We search our records to protect you from conflicts of interest. Where a conflict arises or may arise (for example, where we find that your opponent is or has been our client), we may not be able to accept or continue working on your matter.

26. Storage & Copying of papers & documents

After the matter has been completed, we will store your file for up to six years for Administration of Estate matters, 6 years for sale matters, 15 years for purchase matters, at the conclusion of which we will destroy the file, unless it is a Will file, in which case your file shall be held indefinitely. We will place your file into storage fourteen days after your matter has been completed, and should you require return of any papers we hold on your behalf you will need to inform us of this before your file is placed into storage. Should you require significant papers to be returned to you, we reserve the right to make a charge to cover the time we need to spend to sort through the papers, to cover our reasonable administrative expenses and reasonable photocopying costs to maintain a full record on our file. The Company will not destroy documents such as Wills, Deeds and other securities that you ask us to keep in safe custody. We do, however, reserve the right to scan and shred all other paper files, for the ease of our storage systems. You should request return of any papers you require within 14 days of your matter being completed if you require return of any such papers before they are scanned and then shredded. Files relating to claims for children or for persons who are unable to manage their own financial affairs will be kept for longer.

We are entitled to keep your papers and documents if there is any money owing to us for our charges and expenses for any reason.

If we retrieve papers or documents from storage in relation to additional or new instructions to act in connection with your affairs, we will charge you £35 plus VAT for such retrieval, to cover our administrative expenses of such retrieval. If we are required to retrieve, schedule and despatch title deeds to you or a third party we shall do so by recorded delivery or DX and make a charge of £50 plus VAT for doing this. However, we may make a charge based on time spent producing stored papers or documents to you or another at your request. We may also charge for reading, correspondence or other work necessary to comply with the instructions given by you or on your behalf.

On certain occasions it may be necessary for us to photocopy partially or entirely your file of papers for our own records. In such an event we reserve the right to make a charge for the reasonable photocopying costs, usually between 25-45 pence plus VAT per copy before the file can be forwarded.

27. Changes in the Law and Critical Dates

Unless we are instructed to review the law and report to you from time to time or to deal with the matters in question immediately prior to a critical date, we will not remind you of changes in the law which might affect you or future critical dates. We will charge you on a time basis for any research which may be necessary to obtain an up to date position of the legal position as it relates to your matter.

28. Reporting Concerns

We are committed to providing a high quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to improve our standards.

If you have any complaint about the way in which your matter has been dealt with this is the procedure which will be followed:

12. A complaint is an oral or written expressions of dissatisfaction which alleges that the complainant has suffered (or may suffer) financial loss, distress, inconvenience, or detriment. If you have a complaint, contact us with the details. We accept complaints both orally and in
 - We will send you a letter acknowledging your complaint and asking you to confirm or explain the details set out. We will also let you know the name of the person who will be dealing with your complaint.
3. We will record your complaint in our central register and open a separate file for you complaint. We will do this within a day of receiving your
4. We will then start to investigate your complaint. This will normally involve the following
 - We will pass your complaint to one of Sunil Kambli, Rakash Mattu or Hugh Storer, our client care Managers, within 3 days.
 - One of them will ask the member of staff who acted for you to reply to your complaint within 3
 - One of them will then examine their reply and the information in your complaint file. If necessary, one of them may also speak to the member of staff. This will take up to 3 days from receiving their reply and

5. One of Sunil Kambli, Rakash Mattu or Hugh Storer will then invite you to a meeting or telephone you to discuss and hopefully resolve your complaint. One of them will do this within 3
6. Within 2 days of the meeting, one of Sunil Kambli, Rakash Mattu or Hugh Storer will write to you to confirm what took place and any solutions either of them has agreed with

If you do not want a meeting or it is not possible, one of Sunil Kambli, Rakash Mattu or Hugh Storer will send you a detailed reply to your complaint. This will include their suggestions for resolving the matter. One of them will do this within 3 days of completing the investigation.

7. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied you can contact us again. We will then arrange to review our decision, and this will happen in of the following way:
 - Another Manager of the firm will review Sunil Kambli's, Rakash Mattu's or Hugh Storer's decision within 3
8. We will let you know the result of the review within 3 days of the end of the review. At this time we will write to you confirming our final position on your complaint and explaining our
9. Your complaint shall dealt with in full within 28 days of receipt of the
10. If you are still not satisfied, you can then contact the Legal Ombudsman at Legal Ombudsman, PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ about your Any complaint to the Legal Ombudsman must be made within 6 months of receiving a final written response from us about your complaint. There are also two additional relevant time limits; Legal Ombudsman will accept complaints up to 6 years from the date of act / omission, or 3 years from when the complainant should have known about the complaint.

For further information, you should contact the Legal Ombudsman (0300 555 0333 or refer to www.legalombudsman.org.uk).

If we have to change any of the timescales above, we will let you know and explain why.

Alternative complaints bodies (such as ProMediate) exist which are competent to deal with complaints about legal services should both you and our firm wish to use such a scheme. ProMediate's contact details are as follows:

29. Audit

Our regulator, the Council of Licensed Conveyancers, has the ability to inspect our client files. If you do not consent to such inspections then you must tell us in writing.

30. Limitation of Liability

The Firm's liability from one claim ("a Claim") which arises from our work is £2,000,000. For the purpose of this clause a Claim includes any number of claims from you or any other clients arising from either one transaction or matter, or from the same or similar acts or omissions in a series of related transactions or matters. We will not be liable for any consequential, special, indirect or exemplary damages, costs or losses or any damages, costs or losses attributable to lost profits or opportunities. We can only limit our liability to the extent the law allows. In particular, we cannot limit our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence. Please ask if you would like us to explain any of the terms above. Copies of the Firm's professional indemnity insurance policy are available on request.

"If you make a valid claim against us for a loss arising out of work for which we are legally responsible, and we are unable to meet our liability in full, you may be entitled to claim from the Compensation Fund administered by the Council for Licensed Conveyancers (from whom details can be obtained")

31. Financial Services Compensation Scheme

In the event of a banking failure it is unlikely that the Company would be held liable for any losses of client account money. If a corporate body client is not considered a small Company by FSCS, then they will not be eligible for compensation. The £85,000 Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) limit will apply to each individual client so if you hold other personal monies yourself in the same bank or banking group as we do; the limit remains £85,000 in total per bank or banking group. In the event of a bank failure you agree to us disclosing details to the FSCS.

32. Wills

By completing the questions which form part of the will questionnaire and answering any additional telephone questions, you confirm that you are not subject to coercion or undue influence and have sufficient mental capacity to make and execute a will and have not been influenced by anyone in answering the questions. We accept no responsibility for verifying the identity, age or testamentary capacity of you or your witnesses. We will prepare your Will strictly in accordance with your instructions and the details you have provided, and so you are required to ensure you have provided complete and accurate information, as we shall not be liable for any errors or omissions in details provided by you. Once we have prepared a draft will for you our full fee becomes immediately payable. Leaving your residuary estate between exempt and non-exempt beneficiaries (i.e. charities) may result in the negative tax implications if your estate is subject to inheritance tax; if you have any concerns you should contact Goodwills Legal Services Limited to discuss your circumstances. Tax advice/work is outside of the engagement with you, and we shall not be liable for any adverse tax implications. Changes in inheritance tax legislation may affect the tax efficiency of your will. Please note that we will not be obliged to contact you if there are any changes to the tax legislation, but may choose to do so at our option. We cannot be liable to you for any losses, damages or costs (whether arising in contract, tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty or otherwise) arising as a result of our failure to contact you in these circumstances. It is essential wills are signed in accordance with the signing instructions we send out with them. If your wills are not signed and witnessed correctly they may be invalid. If you do not follow our instructions in relation to the signature of your will then we accept no responsibility for the effective execution of your will. You have a choice whether to appoint an executor who is a professional (Goodwills Legal Services Limited), lay (family member or beneficiary), or both, and should take into account the size and complexity of the estate when deciding. If only a lay, the lay may engage the services of a professional on the death of the client. Where we are appointed as executors and as per Council for Licensed Conveyancers guidelines, our fees for carrying out the administration of the estate could be charged for on an hourly rate basis or a percentage of the estate or both, determined on a case by case basis, taking into account the size and complexity of the estate. Typically, our charges would be in the region of 1% to 2% of the gross estate value plus VAT. With some executorships there may be a continuing role for us as executor to act as a trustee. In these circumstances any trustee fees will be charged for on an hourly rate basis. Where we are appointed as executor (and trustee) and asked to renounce (and retire) by the beneficiaries, following the death of our client, we would not normally do so, in accordance with Council for Licensed Conveyancers guidelines, so as to ensure that the wishes of our client are carried out. Where we do consider such a request, we would look at all of the relevant reasons, and make a charge for our time spent in such consideration and for the preparation and signing of any relevant papers. If we decide to renounce our appointment as executor, we reserve the right to charge a fee of £250 plus VAT for the work involved. Our advice is confidential to you and this Company shall not be responsible if you make it available to third parties. No person who is not a party to this agreement embodied in these standard terms and conditions and the relative covering letter(s) or your beneficiaries under your will shall, in the absence of express provision to the contrary, have any right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms, but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available under that Act. If you are contemplating marriage or contemplating entering into a civil partnership, this will not be accommodated in your will, unless express provision to the contrary has been agreed, and so you will need to have a new will drawn up should you marry or enter into a civil partnership. If you divorce then inheritances under your Will may be affected and you should seek further legal advice. If for whatever reason you fail to sign your will, we accept no liability to you for the completion of your will, nor any loss arising for its non-completion. We do not register your Will with any Will registries, but if you require this service then please let us know and we shall provide you with a quote. If you store your own Will it is your responsibility to inform your Executors of its location. If you decide that you do not wish for Goodwills Legal Services Limited to securely store your Will we shall return it to you. In order to release any documents securely we would require one original form of photo ID (passport or photo-card driving licence) and 2 original and recent (i.e. less than 3 month's old) proof of address documents (for example, a bank statement, council tax or utility bill), and a written request for release of such documents. There would also be an administrative fee of £35 plus VAT plus special delivery costs (c.£10). We accept no liability for any loss should your Will be lost or delayed in the post.

33. Lasting Powers of Attorney and Deputyships

Where Goodwills Legal Services Limited are appointed as an attorney or a deputy we will charge for all such services, including any time spent in dealing with routine matters which a lay attorney or deputy could undertake, in accordance with our scales of fees that are applicable at the time, and which will be within Council for Licensed Conveyancers guidelines.
